Research

Research Interests

- Economic History
- Political Economy
- Applied Econometrics

Working Papers

- “Monumental Effects: Confederate Monuments in the Post-Reconstruction South”* Draft: May 2023
- Previously presented as “Public Symbols and Voting Behavior: Post-Reconstruction Confederate Symbols”
 - Uses TWFE and event study models to examine the impact of Confederate monument dedications on socio-political outcomes in the Post-Reconstruction South
- “The Impact of the Black Death on the Adoption of the Printing Press”* Under Review, Draft: Apr 2023
- with Noel Johnson and Andrew Thomas
 - Uses a 2SLS model to measure the impact of the Black Death on the emergence of new markets and the adoption of new technologies, namely the market for books and the printing press

Work in Progress

- “Dictionaries and Language in Early Modern Europe”*
- Investigates the impact of printed dictionaries in early modern Europe
- “Policy, Printing, and Linguistic Homogenization: The Case of Early Modern French”*
- with Jacob Hall
 - Investigates the impact of language policy and state capacity on printed early modern French
- “The History of the Urban-Rural Divide in American Politics”*
- with Jacob Hall and Pradyot Sharma
 - Investigates the evolution of political divides between urban and rural America

In the Media

- “Code Snitching: Nashvillians Are Weaponizing Metro Codes Against ‘Undesirable’ Neighbors”* July 2022
- By Radley Balko in the Nashville Scene
 - Explores the disproportionate use of metro code violation complaints in gentrifying neighborhoods
 - My contribution found that lower-valued homes were more likely to have complaints filed against them, even when controlling for a home’s condition, in gentrifying areas. I did not find the same relationship in non-gentrifying areas.
